STATEMENT OF PROFIT AND LOSS

For the year ended 31 December 2020 ("FY2020"), the Group saw an increase in revenue by US$10.3 million to US$111.8 million as compared to the revenue of US$101.5 million in the year ended 31 December 2019 (FY2019). The increase in revenue was mainly due to the growth in the LCD Backlight Units segment, particularly for orders of larger-sized LCD backlight units used in the digital instrument panels of premium automobile and displays of ultrathin notebook computers. The growth in this segment offset the loss in revenue from the other segments caused by the outbreak of Novel Coronavirus (“COVID-19”) which halted work at the Group’s plants in China due to a blanket requirement for the selected provinces to cease production in the beginning of the financial year under review. The COVID-19 pandemic also disrupted the Group’s supply chains by making locally manufactured accessory materials in short supply and prohibited the workers in the affected areas from reporting duty to the Group’s factories. These pandemic-related restrictions negatively impacted production and hence the revenue for the year under review. However, through the increase in the utilisation rate and the deployment of more efficient equipment and methods, the Group’s gross profit improved by US$2.3 million from US$20.2 million in FY2019 to US$22.5 million in FY2020. The gross profit margin of the Group increased to 20.2% in FY2020, as compared to 19.9% in FY2019.

Other operating income for FY2020 decreased by US$0.7 million to US$1.4 million (FY2019: US$2.1 million) in the absence of impairment losses written back. This amount mainly comprised government subsidies, reduction in rent, interest income earned and foreign exchange gains. In the area of expenses in FY2020, distribution expenses increased by US$1.1 million to US$3.3 million (FY2019: US$2.2 million) while administrative expenses decreased by US$1.9 million to US$16.7 million (FY2019: US$18.6 million). The higher distribution expenses were mainly attributable to the increase in packing materials used for larger sized LCD backlight units and their higher transportation costs. The decrease in administrative expenses was caused by the cost control measures on wages-related expenses and the reduction in other operating expenses. Finance costs remained low for the year under review as the Group continues to strictly uphold its low gearing policy despite the current low interest environment.

The Group’s associated company, which is still in its development phase, incurred a loss in FY2020 and the Group shared an operating loss of US$0.2 million (FY2019: US$1.9 million) accordingly.

Income tax expense for FY2020 increased by US$0.6 million to US$1.9 million as compared to US$1.3 million for FY2019. The high effective tax rate was attributable to tax credit from the loss-making subsidiaries not being able to fully offset the income tax payable from the profit-making subsidiaries.

In FY2020, the Group recorded a profit before income tax of US$3.4 million (FY2019: Loss before income tax of US$0.6 million) and registered a profit after income tax of US$1.5 million (FY2019: Loss after income tax of US$1.9 million).

LCD Backlight Units (“LCD BLUs”)

In FY2020, revenue from the LCD Backlight Units segment increased 35.7% by US$22.0 million to US$83.7 million (FY2019: US$61.7 million). The increase in revenue was due to the combination of both higher order volume and a higher average selling price on larger-sized LCD backlight units intended for use in displays of digital instrument panels of premium automobiles and ultrathin notebook computers. As such, there was a 132.0% increase in operating profit from previous year to US$5.8 million in FY2020 (FY2019: US$2.5 million).

In terms of quantity, the total number of units sold for the period under review was 7.6 million units (FY2019: 7.5 million units) with details in various size as below:

Unit in million	FY2020	FY2019	% change
Below 5 inches	1.2	2.9	-58.6
5 to 8 inches	2.4	2.1	+14.3
Over 8 inches	4.0	2.5	+60.0
Total	7.6	7.5	+1.3

LCD BLUs over 8 inches accounted for 86.0% (FY2019: 67.6%) of the segment revenue, of which 43.3% (FY2019: 31.2%) were for digital instrument panels of premium automobiles and 42.7% (FY2019: 36.4%) for displays of ultrathin notebook computers, respectively. In terms of quantity, 2.4 million units sold in FY2020 (FY2019: 1.5 million) was related to digital instrument panels of premium automobiles while 1.6 million units sold (FY2019: 1.0 million) went to ultrathin notebook computers.

Office Automation

The revenue from this segment dropped by US$8.0 million to US$13.2 million in FY2020 as compared to US$21.2 million in FY2019. The segment recorded a small operating profit of US$0.1 million in FY2020 as compared to an operating profit of US$1.2 million in FY2019. The decrease in both revenue and operating result were attributable to the aforementioned COVID-19-related disruption.

LCD Parts and Accessories

The sales for the LCD Parts and Accessories segment decreased by US$3.0 million from US$16.8 million in FY2019 to US$13.8 million in FY2020. The reduction in revenue was mainly due to the ongoing US-China trade tensions, in which OEM business volume reduced by US$5.8 million from US$8.6 million in FY2019 to US$2.8 million in FY2020. The revenue in the LCD Parts and Accessories business increased by US$2.8 million from US$8.2 million in FY2019 to US$11.0 million in FY2020 as a strong demand for related parts and accessories of LCD displays. The segment booked an operating profit of US$1.1 million for FY2020 as compared to an operating profit of US$0.8 million in FY2019.

Other Segment

The other segment mainly includes the food and beverage business as well as the life science business. A revenue of US$1.1 million was generated in this segment for FY2020 (FY2019: US$1.7 million). As the Life Science division is presently in its initial development stage, the segment recorded an operating loss of US$0.03 million in FY2020 (FY2019: US$0.2 million).

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL POSITION

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's total assets and liabilities stood at US$102.3 million and US$50.7 million respectively, as compared to US$88.0 million and US$37.4 million as at 31 December 2019.

Current assets rose 18.0% to US$88.3 million as at 31 December 2020 as compared to US$74.8 million as at 31 December 2019. Cash and bank balances increased 15.8% by US$4.5 million to US$33.0 as at 31 December 2020 as compared to US$28.5 million as at 31 December 2019.

Associated with the rise in revenue for FY2020, particularly the recovery in orders of LCD backlight units, inventory increased from US$9.9 million as at 31 December 2019 to US$13.5 million as at 31 December 2020, which are needed to fulfil the orders in coming months. As a result of the increase in business, trade receivables also increased 15.0% by US$4.8 million from US$31.9 million as at 31 December 2019 to US$36.7 million as at 31 December 2020. Except for the longer credit term of 120 days offered to our key customer, there was no material change in the credit term of 60 days to 90 days offered to customers in general.

Other receivables and prepayments of US$3.3 million (31 December 2019: US$2.4 million) mainly represented other debtors, utility deposits, prepaid expenses, value added tax recoverable and sales tax prepaid. During the year under review, the Group has provided financial support in terms of interest-bearing loans to A Biotech Co., Limited, an associated company of the Group, for its research and development of commercial applications of its antibody library. As such, the amounts due from associate increased from US$0.5 million as at 31 December 2019 to US$1.3 million as at 31 December 2020. Loans and other receivables of US$1.5 million represented the sales proceeds for the disposal of interest in a subsidiary of which the payment was overdue, and action has been taken to recover the outstanding debt.

The non-current assets of the Group stood at US$14.0 million as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019: US$13.2 million). Also included in property, plant and equipment of US$6.8 million as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019: US$6.5 million) was newly purchased equipment and leasehold improvement mainly in the Group's factory in the Philippines, amounting to US$1.3 million, which was netted off against the depreciation charge of US$1.2 million and the foreign currency translation effect of US$0.2 million. During the year under review, there are amortisation of right-of-use assets amounting to US$1.7 million and new leases or modification to the existing leases amounting to US$2.0 million. With the foreign currency translation effect of US$0.2 million, the net effect of these two factors increased the right-of-use assets from US$3.4 million as at 31 December 2019 to US$3.9 million as at 31 December 2020. The equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income included the equity investment in a Korean company, which offered the Group the manufacturing and distribution rights for its products, and listed shares in Japan. Investment in associates represented our investment in A Biotech Co., Limited, which is a company incorporated in Korea that has incurred losses as it is still in the development phase.

Total liabilities as at 31 December 2020 rose to US$50.7 million, representing an increase of US$13.3 million over FY2020 (31 December 2019: US$37.4 million). In relation to the right-of-use assets as mentioned above, there were lease liabilities of US$4.0 million as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019: US$3.5 million), of which US$1.7 million was payable within one year and was classified under current liabilities (31 December 2019: US$1.5 million). During the years under review, there was repayment of leased liabilities amounting to US$1.7 million (FY2019: US$1.4 million).

As explained in the statement of cash flows, the Group redrew bank borrowings amounting to US$20.6 million while settling bank borrowings amounting to US$16.9 million with net proceeds of US$3.7 million during FY2020. Total outstanding bank borrowings was US$13.3 million as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019:

US$9.5 million) for general working capital and financing purposes.

The trade payables were substantially increased by US$8.4 million to US$27.8 million as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019: US$19.4 million) for the year under review. The increase was mainly due to the purchases of raw materials near year-end for sales orders in coming quarters. There was no material change in the credit terms offered by the Group's suppliers and the settlement was done in accordance with the agreed credit terms. Other payables and accruals, mainly representing wages payable and other payables for operating expenses, slightly increased by US$0.5 million from US$3.3 million as at 31 December 2019 to US$3.8 million as at 31 December 2020.

The income tax for FY2020 was provided and adjusted under tax rules of various jurisdictions. The income tax charge net of payment for the period under review had increased the income tax payable by US$0.1 million to US$0.6 million (31 December 2019: US$0.5 million).

Included in the non-current liabilities were retirement benefit obligations for directors in the Group's subsidiaries in Japan and deferred tax liabilities related to the withholding tax on dividends from the profit-making subsidiaries in China and the tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities and their tax bases.

STATEMENT OF CASH FLOWS

During the year under review, the Group generated operating cash flow of US$6.4 million, up 113.3 % from the previous year (FY2019: US$3.0 million). Net cash generated from operating activities amounting to US$5.1 million (FY2019: net cash used in operating activities amounting to US$2.5 million). In the prior year, the cash generated from the operation was utilised in funding the prolonged credit terms offered to the Group's key customers. As this situation had been stabilised, the Group was able to generate net cash inflow from operation. During FY2020, the Group paid income tax amounting to US$1.6 million (FY2019: US$1.4 million).

For investing activities, there was net cash outflow of US$1.1 million (FY2019: US$1.1 million) over the year under review. The outflow was mainly attributable to purchases of property, plant and equipment amounting to US$1.3 million (FY2019: US$2.2 million), net of the receipt of interest income of US$0.1 million and restricted bank deposits of US$0.2 million (FY2019: Receipt of interest income of US$0.4 million and loan and receivable of US$0.7 million).

For financing activities, there was a net cash outflow of US$0.7 million over the year under review (FY2019: US$3.6 million). The financing activities mainly included the net bank borrowings amounting to US$3.8 million during FY2020 (FY2019: US$1.1 million). The Group purchased its shares under Shares Purchase Mandate amounting to US$0.2 million (FY2019: US$0.6 million), and repaid lease liabilities amounting to US$1.8 million (FY2019: US$1.6 million). In addition, the Group paid dividends of US$2.4 million for FY2020 (FY2019: US$2.5 million).

9. Where a forecast, or a prospect statement, has been previously disclosed to shareholders, any variance between it and the actual results

Not applicable.

10. A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

Business Environment

For the year under review, the Group's continues to face a challenging business environment with external headwinds. The Group already operates in an industry with intense price competition and shortening product life cycles. However, this is further exacerbated by US-China trade tensions and the global economic effects of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Group's OEM operations in the Philippines continue to be delayed due to COVID-19-related travel restrictions. To avoid further delays, the Group has subcontracted the work to temporary production facilities in Thailand. As soon as COVID-19 lockdown and travel restrictions are lifted in the Philippines, preparation for mass production operations such as hiring and training of workers and the obtaining of the necessary ISO certifications for the factory can re-commence. The typical time between a resumption of operations and commencement of mass production is approximately two to three months.

Despite the aforementioned challenges, the Group will continue to work with its customers to develop new products, grow its other businesses to diversify its revenue streams, and explore alternative manufacturing locations to reduce exposure to US-China trade tensions, as well as explore any new business opportunities.

The Group does not see any going concern issue and continues to maintain a healthy financial position and liquidity. So far, neither the Group nor any of its counterparties have exercised temporary relief, force majeure clauses or termination of contractual obligations for material contracts. In addition, the Group does not see any threats to contractual rights or its ability to fulfil its obligations of any material contracts.

Business Segment Outlook

For the financial year under review, the Group continued to receive orders for larger-sized LCD backlight units used in digital instrument panels of premium automobiles and ultrathin notebook computers. The demand for larger-sized LCD backlight units used in digital instrument panels of premium automobiles is rising as more of these displays become commonplace in mainstream automobiles. The Group is well-positioned to continue serving this growing market for large-sized LCD backlight units, due to its competitive advantages.

Firstly, the key customer recognises our superior product quality, where we rank the highest in product quality among their suppliers for LCD backlight units. Secondly, the Group provides our customers with superior service support with its Japan and China offices in close proximity to the key customer's head offices and factories. This allows for a quick response time to provide technical support, facilitate production planning, and address quality issues if any. This superior service level allows the Group to perform higher value-added activities with its key customer such as product development and design for their light guide panels and LCD backlight units for automobile digital instrument panels. Thirdly, the Group has readily available production capacity to scale up in accordance with the customer's demand and has a good track record for a competitiveness.

Meanwhile, both the Office Automation, and LCD Parts and Accessories segments continue to face intense price competition, as well as lower revenue due to model obsolescence or being phased out. Both segments have been taking measures to maintain profitability, and are anticipated to remain stable in the coming financial year as the Group expects a stable inflow of orders for parts for existing models of office automation, mobile phones and ultrathin notebook computers.

The OEM business for mobile payment devices, which is a subset of the LCD Parts and Accessories segment, likewise faces stiffer price competition from other PRC suppliers. In response, the Group has streamlined and removed non-competitive models and is shifting the bulk of its operations to a new facility in the Philippines. However, while COVID-19 pandemic-related restrictions remain in place in the Philippines, production has been subcontracted to a partner in Thailand as the Group's main customer for mobile point-of-sale devices has increased its order volume substantially, which is comparable to the levels before US-China trade tensions, for the coming two quarters.

For the life sciences business, the Group's subsidiary, GSP Enterprise Inc. ("GSP"), is actively working on the development of new antibody drugs using its antibody library. The joint research efforts of the team which includes GSP, ABio, and the Group's subsidiary, Tomoike Bio Limited with Okayama University has successfully obtained a patent in Japan for an antibody that targets cancer stem cells. Under various co-operation agreements with A Biotech Company Limited ("ABio"), an associated company of the Group, in-vitro studies by ABio have demonstrated that antibodies screened from GSP's antibody library, targets specific cancer cells, showing potential applications for anticancer drugs. ABio plans to outsource certain pipeline efficacy studies in mice for independent third-party evaluation with a trial is expected to begin in the first half of FY2021 and conclude within a three to four-month timeframe.

Managing Risks and Looking Forward

The Group continues to right-size its operations with the aim of managing costs and increasing economies of scale. At the same time, the Group has to be nimble to mitigate external challenges and risks such as an escalation of US-China trade tensions, with its establishment of a new 21,500 square foot production facility in the Philippines. With the facility already outfitted with production equipment, the hiring and training of workers can commence once COVID-19 related travel restrictions are lifted and the facility can be operational within two to three months.

The Group continues to explore and to have discussions with potential customers of its Office Automation and LCD Parts and Accessories segments to diversify into new products. These initiatives would safeguard the utilization of the Group's key manufacturing assets and would reserve its value drivers, in order to avoid any material assets impairment at the year-end reporting.

To safeguard its employees against COVID-19, the Group has established the necessary precautions such as facemask-wearing, cleaning and sanitization, and temperature monitoring for its workers in China. The Company will also continue to follow any Chinese Government directives to deal with COVID-19. The Group still faces an extremely challenging outlook for the current financial year with a slowing global economy in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic.
